Probably not, let me check, I think it will need to drop to $18 again while we reassess...

Aaron,

We checked and we doubled volume for 1 day, your numbers look good.

Thanks,
John

Hi John,

We have already at 1,731 but can't locate the additional 3,800 you refer to as AT. Can you confirm if there is another database other than EER2 and HM.

Thanks

Total Volume was 96,559, this differs from your 91,700 likely by the following...

Himawari, of 1,800, and AT of 3,800. If you include those 2 values we are closer in line.

Thanks,
John
